

Sunday morning began early in the Corriedale arena at Bendigo ASBA to prepare for the many students who register for this event. There are three sections. 13 years and under, 14 years -15 years and 16 years and over. Congratulations to Charlie Clark and Daniel Mosele for their initiative and enthusiasm in creating an electronic scoring system that has streamlined the Judging results. Many thanks go to Bruce Hamblin for his constant reliability in all areas of this competition. Thank you to Jim Venters on Microphone for keeping everyone on task. Thank you to all judges as follows: Daryl MacDonald & Di Jenke - Seniors with Scorers- Grace Calder & Jo Lush. Chris Kemp & Georgia Pengilley - 14 years to 15 years with Scorers - Amanda Kemp & Emily Attard. Richard Archer & Rick Hoolihan - 13 years and under with Scorers - Milton Savage & Kate Methven. Thank you to Judith Nicolson and Di Mackinnon who scored all sections speaking over the Microphone. Thank you to all teachers from competing schools who responded so quickly and e-mailed the students entries and also gave their assistance whenever called upon. Our sincere thanks to everyone.

Congratulations to Kate Methven for her foresight, ingenuity and hard work to seek assistance through Corriedale Youth and approach AWI (Australian Wool Innovation) to assist with the beautiful inscribed broad ribbons given to the successful prize winners. Well done Kate and thankyou from all Corriedale members.

Congratulations to all students who moved quickly when called and returned clipboards and numbers after use. The Judging ran very smoothly and as always was a vibrant event.
