Cancellation policies

Booking cancellations must be sent by written email to mcbancheroc@gmail.com

1. CANCELLATIONS BY THE CUSTOMER

1.1 FOR ALL ACTIVITIES

In the event of cancellation of the service by the client, the following cancellation policies would apply:

- Cancellations up to 31 days: without penalty with the exception of Machu Picchu (expenses incurred for permits and train tickets apply) and air flights.
- Cancellations between 30 and 16 days before the departure date: penalty of 15% of the sale value of the program for administrative expenses and field staff fees. If it is Machu Picchu, the penalty for expenses incurred (income and train tickets) applies, in addition to the 15% administrative expenses. Flight tickets have their own policies.
- Cancellations between 15 days and 8 days: penalty of 50% of the sale value of the program.
- Cancellations 7 days or less from the departure date: it will be considered a no-show and 100% of the program price will apply.

2. CANCELLATION DUE TO REDUCTION IN THE NUMBER OF PASSENGERS

In case we receive the cancellation of one or more participants who are members of a previously reserved group:

2.1 The remaining passengers who, if participating in the trip, will be charged the fare corresponding to the resulting new range - adjusted to the new group size.

2.2 For passengers who are no longer traveling, the provisions of: "Cancellations by the Client" will apply, based on the rate originally granted, based on the original number of participants, prior to any cancellation.

3. CANCELLATIONS FOR REASONS OF FORCE MAJEURE

In case the client cancels his trip for reasons of force majeure, which are within the impossibility of operating the program due to unusual and/or unforeseen and/or out of control circumstances such as: adverse weather, strike that does not allow operation, which risks it and/or forces it to be modified or canceled, sudden and unforeseen inaccessibility of the route (landslides, others), disputes of any kind including social and political, border closures, epidemics or pandemics or any other type of action that prevents or jeopardizes our control of the operation of the trip:

- In the first instance, everything administratively possible will be done to recover the maximum of the money already invested in the trip, a management that depends on the cancellation policies of each hotel, airline, among other suppliers. The recovered balance may remain as a credit towards a future trip (rescheduling of dates) or may be refunded to the client.
- Take into account within these policies that it is not possible to recover 100% of the expenses already incurred, so the client must take into consideration that these non-refundable expenses incurred range between 10% and 20% of the total already paid. .
- This penalty corresponds to:
 - a) Penalties from various suppliers
 - b) Non-recoverable expenses incurred such as Machu Picchu permits, train tickets, entrances to archaeological sites, among others of this nature.
 - c) Under our sustainability policies, we reserve a small percentage of the estimated payment to our support staff in the communities we work with and to small suppliers whose economies depend on us.

- It is for this reason that although it is not mandatory to have travel insurance to travel with us, at the same time, we highly recommend the purchase of one that ensures the client recovers the total amount paid for their trip.
- Cancellations sent after a Friday at 4 pm. They will be considered sent next Monday at 10 am.
- Cancellations sent on a holiday or weekend (local holidays in the department of Cusco are considered in this schedule), will be considered sent the next business day in Cusco at 10 am.

4. TRAVEL INSURANCE

It is essential and necessary to have comprehensive insurance prior to your trip that covers your particular needs and situation including trip cancellations or interruptions, loss of luggage, medical, accident/life expenses, evacuation, repatriation, cancellations due to force majeure. and other expenses that may arise as a result of loss, damage, injury, delay or inconvenience that may occur.
